Boxing Looks to Another Good Season
By ABE J. GREENE
President, National Boxing Association
Paterson, N. J., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Anemic and seething in quality but well fattened and paunchy in box office appeal, boxing in the United States can look forward to another busy year in 1944.
On the theory there will always be a fight club so long as the fans are willing to pay for anything that resembles a couple of guys flailing away, promoters the country over are setting up for a big year. Fight fans of all ages, tastes and tastes are looking forward to the anticipated, Ball parts and outdoor arenas are being aggressively hit-washed for a grand summer spurge.
But what of the future? Therein lies the rub.
As one of the major sports in the country, boxing has a long and stable to have its collective nose rubbed in the fact that it is the major and major league of boxing, its Judge Landis, the sport's administrator, is laying down boxing as his National Boxing Association, which is the only body in the world that is in the line of the various boxing organizations, providing an effective line-holder against corrupt-jumpers and the like, as well as maintaining the best of boxing system.
But N.B.A. doesn't have New Mexico west of Hope on highway 47 at Clark's Plantation. 24-50
